

Data Acquisition Standard Operating Procedures

River, Estuary and Coastal Observing Network (ID# 303)

Last Updated: 5/6/2023

Program Summary

The River, Estuary and Coastal Observing Network (RECON) is a network of water quality sensors deployed throughout the Caloosahatchee river and estuary to provide real-time, water quality data to scientists, policy makers, and the general public. Water samples from various locations and dates are available in WIN.

URLs

- Program - <http://recon.sccf.org/>
- DDI - <https://data.florida-seacar.org/programs/details/303>

Contacts

Contact Name	Organization	Email	Phone
Eric Milbrandt		emilbran@sccf.org	239-395-4617

Data Tables

Data Stored Procedures
